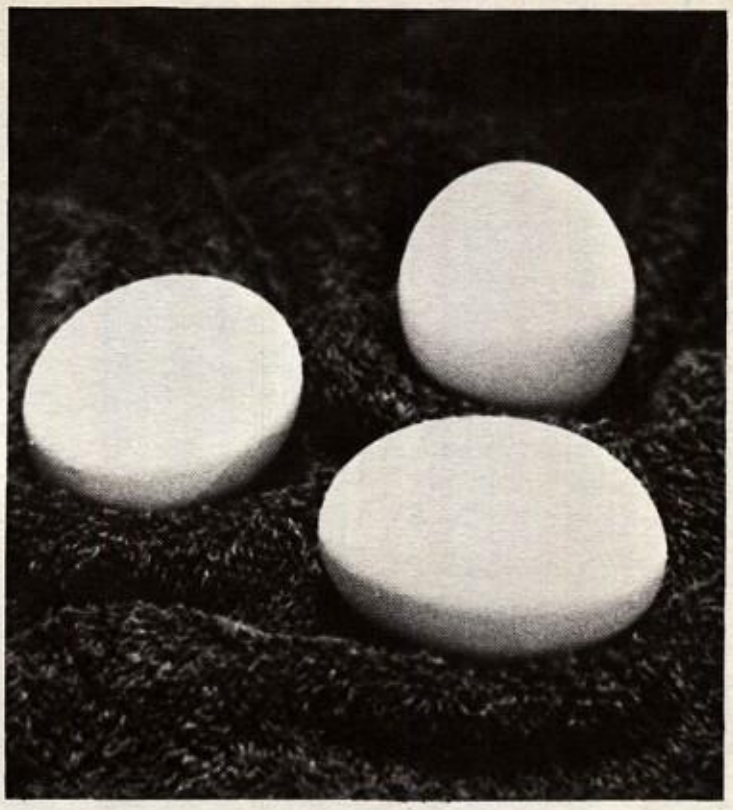
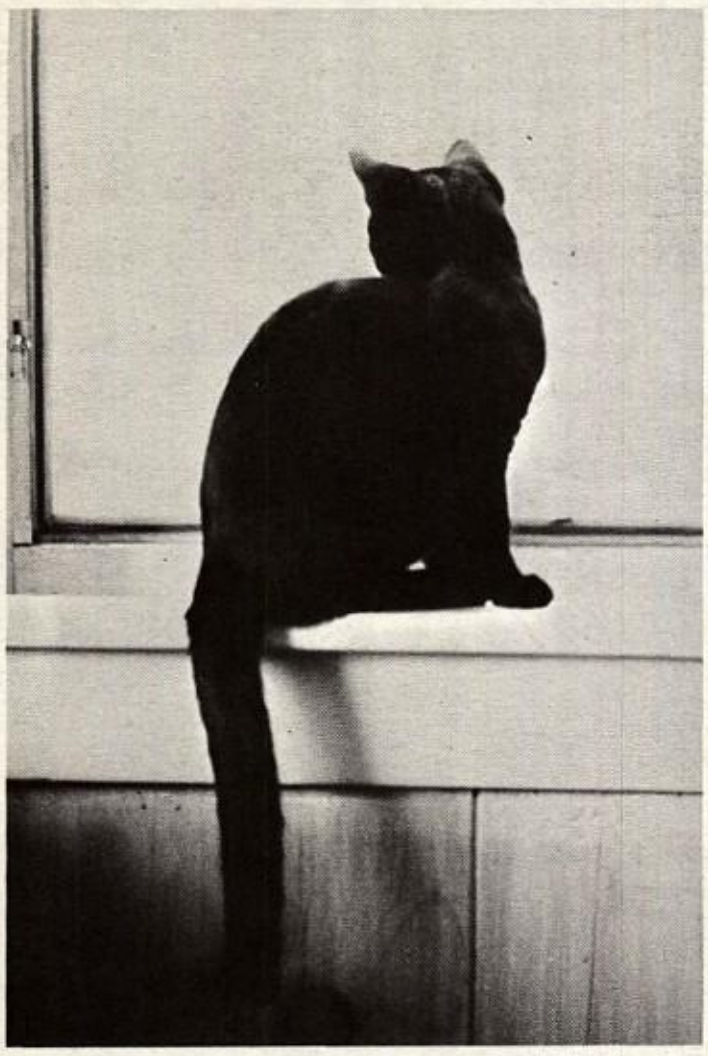
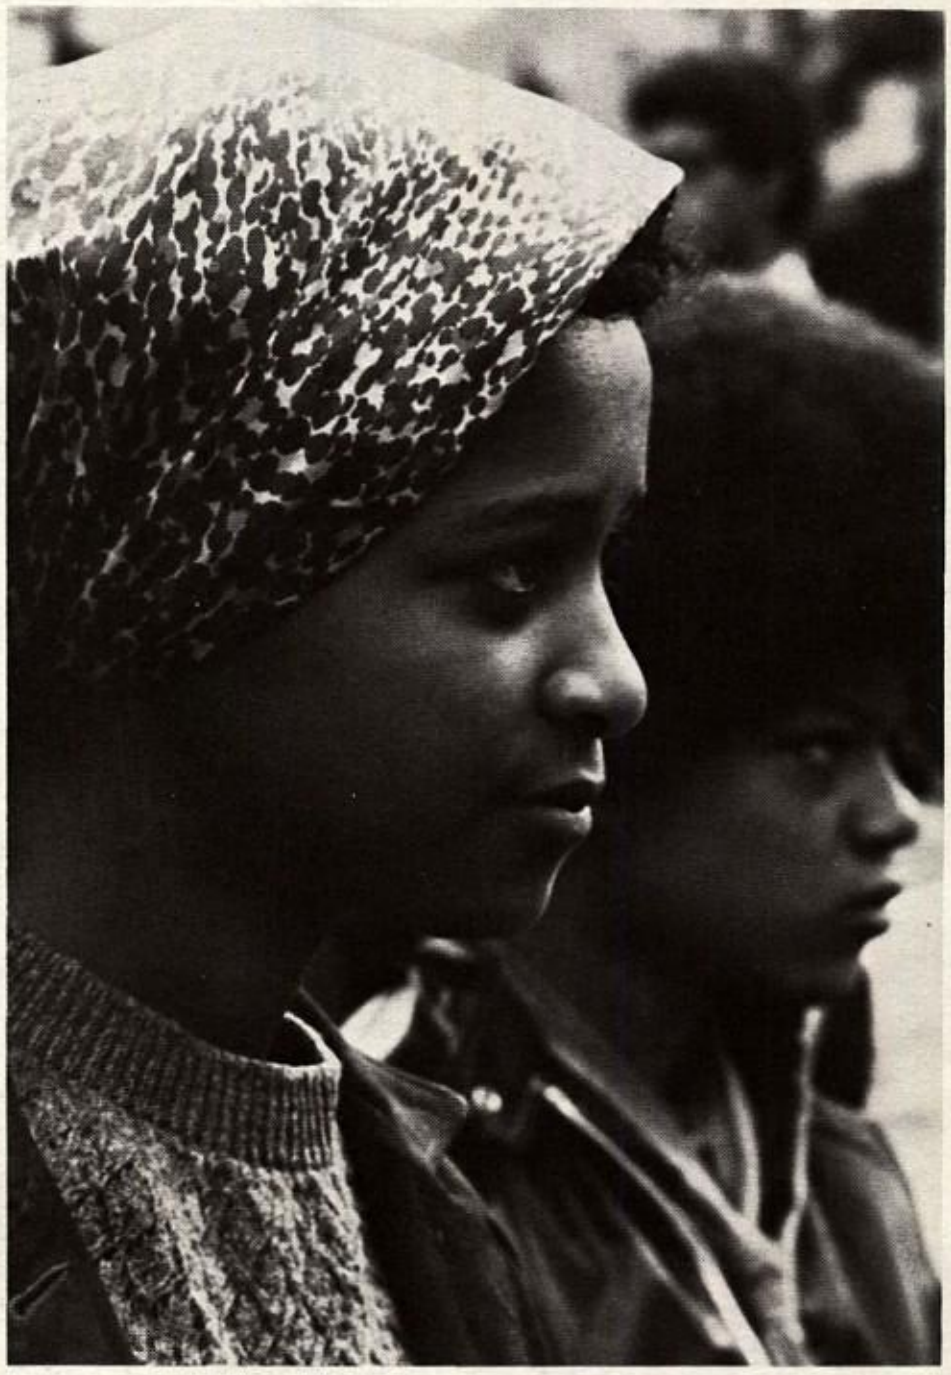
ADVERTISEMENTS 207



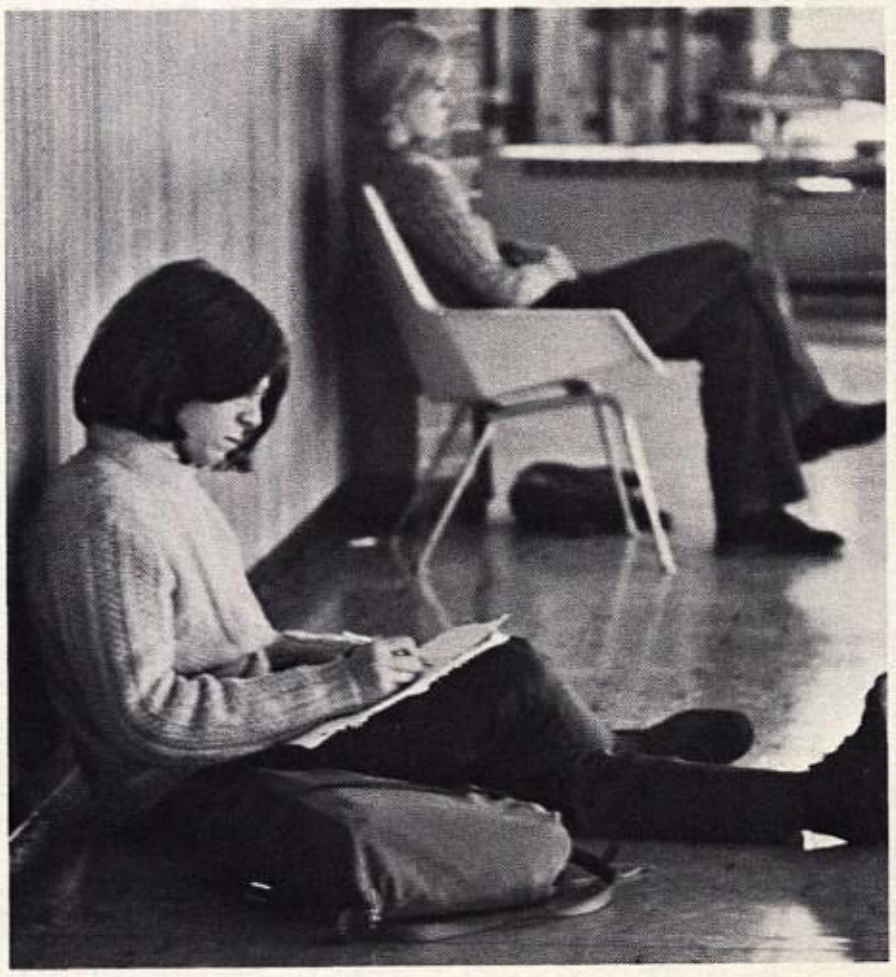


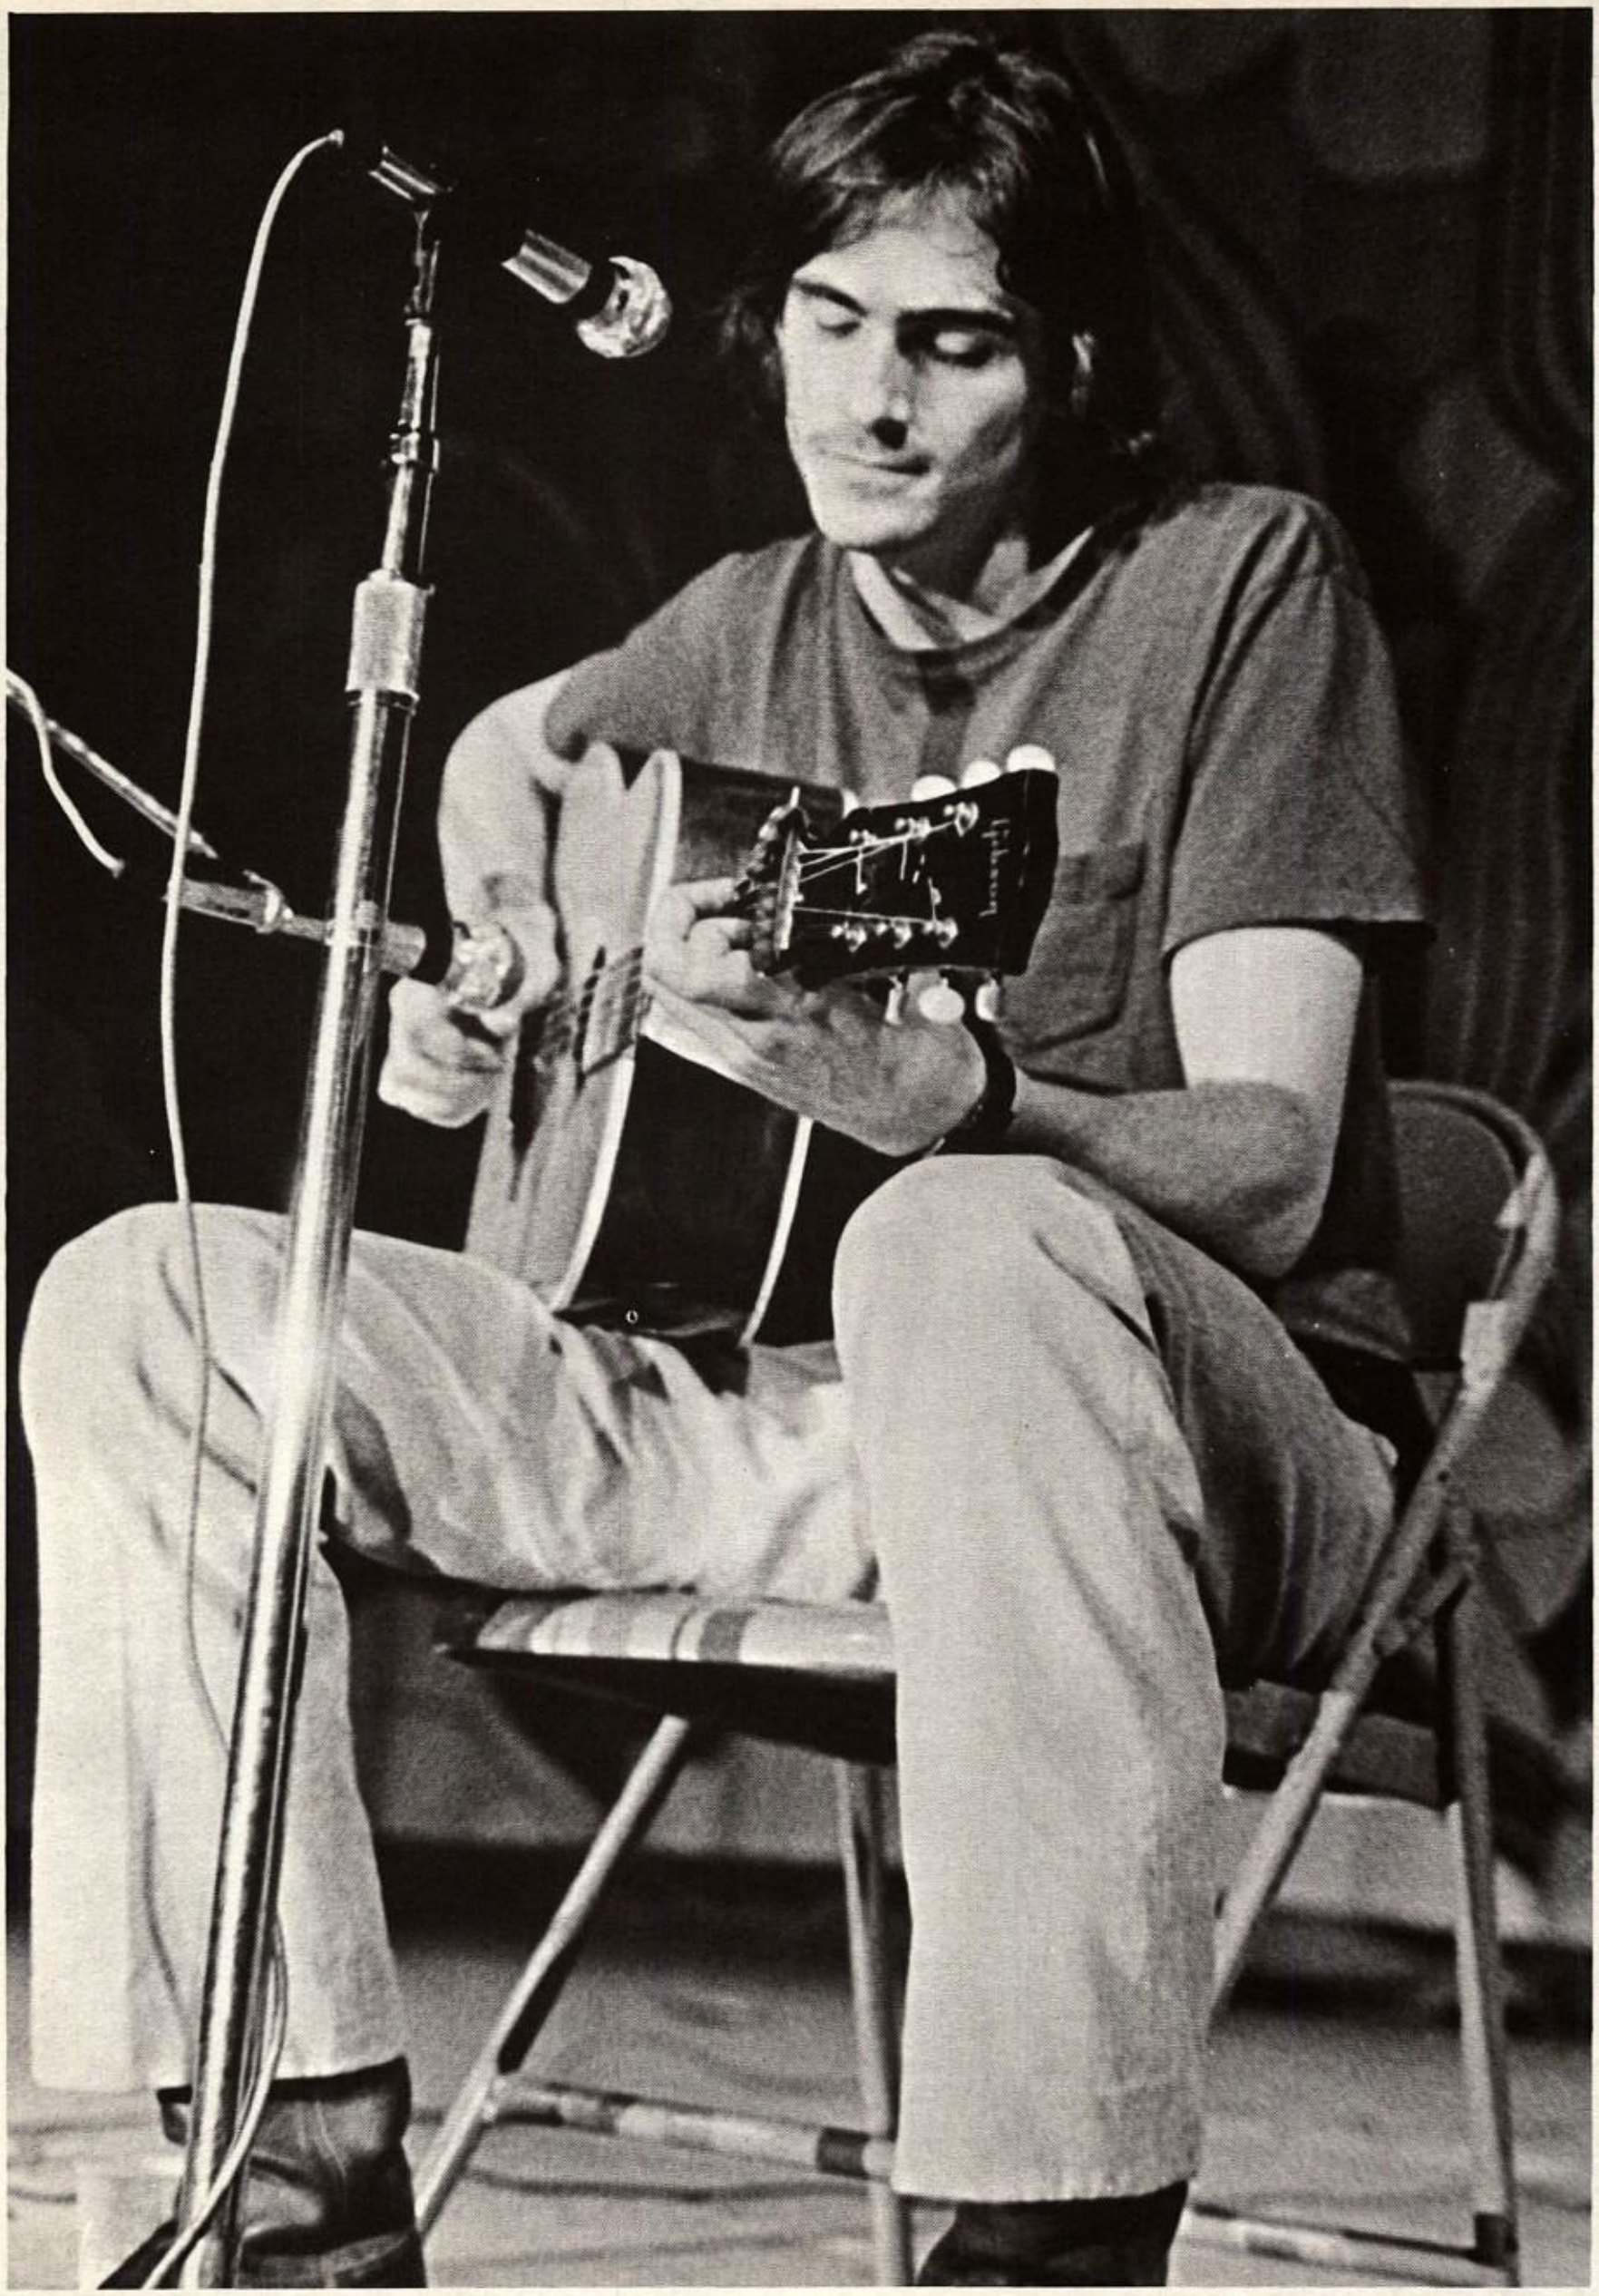


Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they, too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.





Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with the stars; you have a right to be there. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.

With all this sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

"Ithaca High Staves Off Vestal; Wins, 22-20" read the Ithaca Journal's headline as the IHS football team climaxed a perfect season with a dramatic victory over Vestal. As usual, the awesome Ithaca attack was spearheaded by Senior Steve Webster in a see-saw game before 12,000 fans at Vestal Memorial Stadium. Steve supplied most of Ithaca's 22 points with 2 electrifying kick returns—97 yards with a punt and an 80 yard kickoff dash. The win was Ithaca's 17 straight during a three-year span under Coach Joe Moresco. It was IHB's second straight undefeated season.

Ithaca prepared for the meeting with Vestal by mauling teams to the tune of 49-0 and 51-0. Besides Webster, offensive standouts were Quarterback Tom Snickenberger and End Joe Backer, both Seniors. The defensive unit, led by a massive front wall grudgingly gave up but 52 points the entire year.

Other outstanding Seniors were Jim McElroy, Bob Shulman, Bob Nicholas, Mike O'branski, Mike Shrinka and Larry Jordan. Steve Webster, Tom Snickenburger, Joe Backer, George Denttes, Bill Shippos and Rex Stark copped All-STAC honors. Snickenberg, Webster, Shippos and Stark learned positions on several All-Upstate and State teams. And to nobody's surprise, Steve was named NYS's player of the year and an All-American.

IHS has 5 returning starters from New York State's number 1 team for next year. Coach Moresco has high hopes for next season. We'll all miss Steve Webster, and who can forget the "Head Ram."

he Little Red Marching Band opened the 1970-71 sea- with "Sinfonutto" and "Oliver". Next came "Love", the show ever to be planned by computer, and "Abbey d", a very popular routine.

he annual pro-game invitation this year came from Toronto. The rain fell until game time, but the band still put on a fine show for the capacity crowd.

Many thanks to Mr. Socciarelli, Drum Major Ken Sill, Assistant Drum Major Mike Love, and all the marchers for a great season.

Senior Activities

roject X was set up this year by a mittee of students, teachers and nteers to bring various forms of and interests into the school pat-. The student body was asked to cate its interests via a question-e in September and the faculty gested projects which might tie in n the curriculum. The volunteers d these guides as far as they could heir planning.

A series of exhibits filled the H-urt yard cases during the year, de-nstrations of crafts were given dur- the noon hour and in free study ls, informal music and skits took ce in the Activities Building, and, good weather, the large outer court ved an excellent setting for such nts as a dance recital, a dog obedi-e show, fencing & karate demon-tions and music. Two groups with erienced advisors planned a Yurt be finished in the spring,) and a anese Garden in the inner H-Court. number of students took an active t in helping arrange exhibits, put on ir own photography show (in the ing), demonstrated crafts, and took t in a skit and in music.

Because of the sheer number of stu-ts, tight scheduling, lack of free ce and the problem of publicity, a project of this kind does not reach who might be interested. A prime pose of Project X has been to en-rage students to become involved activities new and exciting to them, to originate activities, with or with-assistance. As this year has gone the involvement of students and r active participation has grown. s is the best of starts!

YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHERS

Have you ever had one of those days when everything seemed to go wrong? For instance, you slip and break your leg in the shower the first day Greek Peak opens; or on your 18th birthday you contract a case of the 24 hour Bubonic Plague! As all ANNUAL staffs, we had a few such days. Therefore, a few club, senior and faculty pictures were omitted. We humbly apologize and proudly present our OPPS! section.

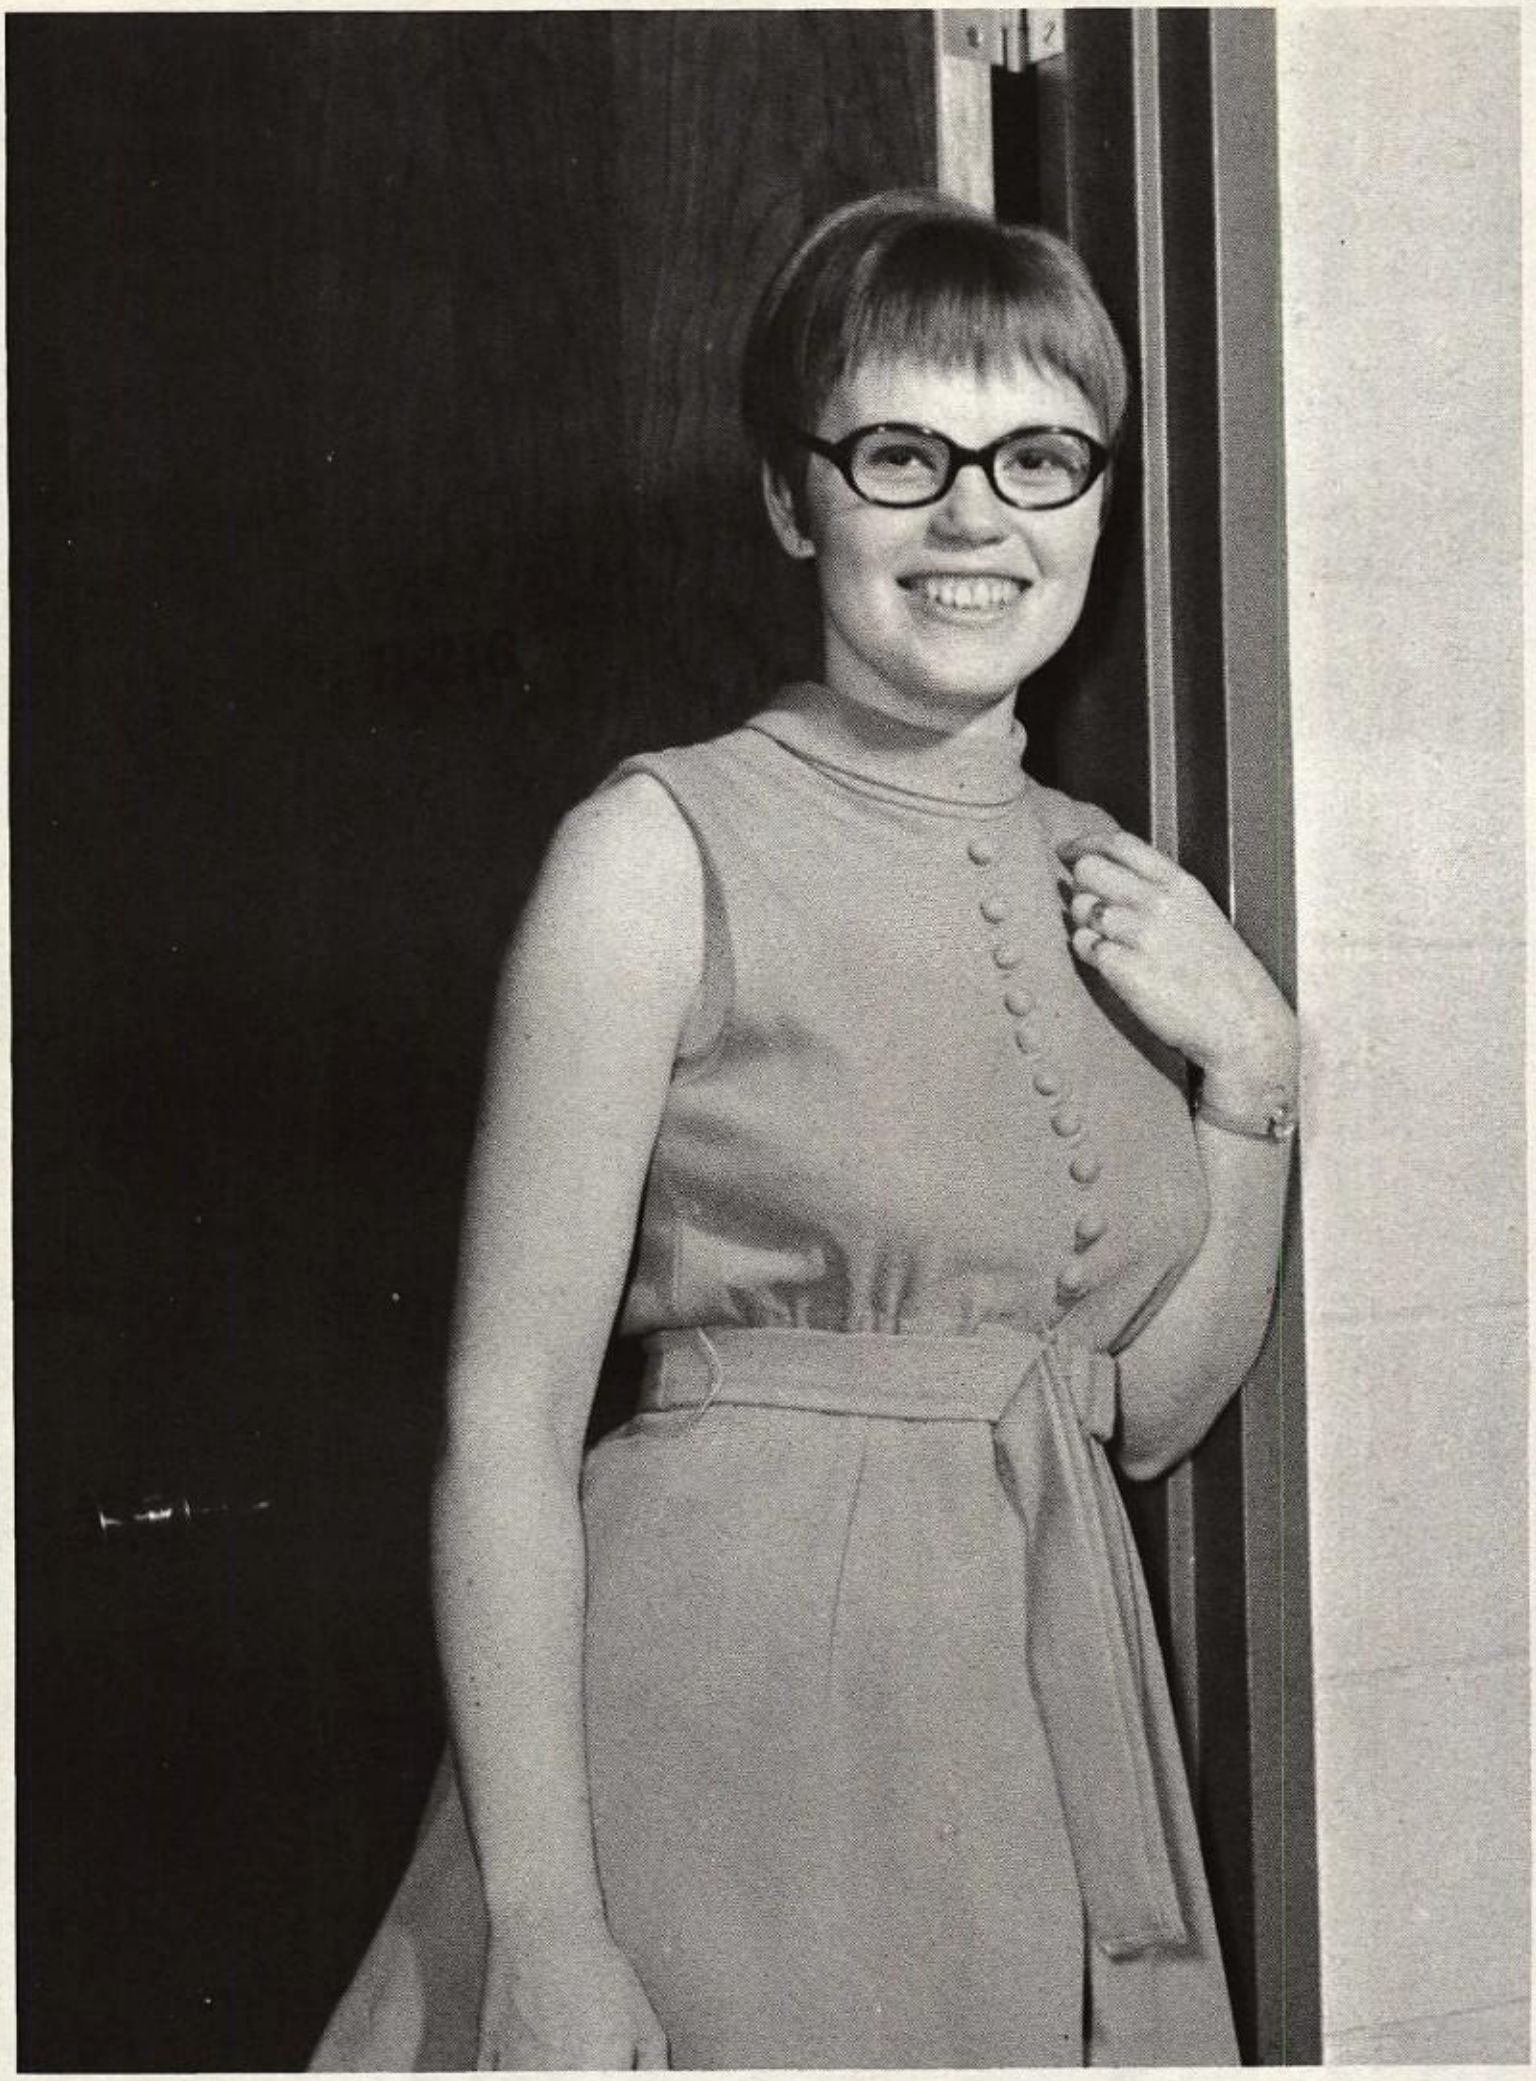
Dedication



The staff wishes to dedicate the 1971 ANNUAL to our advisor, Mrs. Gail Wallis in appreciation for all her diligent work and encouragement.

The Staff

Acknowledgments

EVERY YEARBOOK HAS A STAFF, AND THEN SOME. WELL, WE DECIDED TO TRADITIONALLY NAME THE "AND THEN SOMES," AND TO UNTRADITIONALLY TELL EXACTLY WHAT WE ARE SO GRATEFUL FOR. SO HERE THEY ARE, OUR SAVIORS!

Jeff Thurston—for his fantastic artwork!

John Polisar—for his somewhat grotesque little doodles runing through our pages.

Mrs. Mintz—for the use of her home and for her PIZZA!

Bill Wallis—for the use of his home, his wife and especially for his background music (thanks John).

Mr. Erb—for his cooperation and handling our business affairs.

Tom Trenchard—for the use of his girlfriend on a Friday night and for his loving copying.

Maryann Marsella—for her patient typing.

Mrs. Terrwilliger—for being our own personal secretary!

Mr. Marsh—for the use of Mrs. Terwilliger!

Mr. Pullman—for his inspirational raps.

Mr. and Mrs. Hecht—for the use of their upstairs.
